MADDOO, LONG SILENT, SPEAKS

Makes His First Statement Since Convention

Lauds La Follette, But Fears Some of His Policies

Regrets Divided Battle on "Common Enemy"

(By A. P. Night Wire)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—William G. Maddoo, in his first extended statement since the Democratic National Convention, declared today that the only chance to "purify the government and to accomplish the reforms desired by the people is to elect Davis and Bryan."

In a letter written from Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md., where Mr. Maddoo recently underwent an operation, he informed Democratic national leaders that he would be forced to abandon his plans for an extensive "anti-making" campaign, but that through letters and telegrams to friends in various States he was doing his "utmost to help the cause."

"It is a great pity," the letter said, "that the La Follette and Wheeler, and the Democrats, led by Davis and Bryan, cannot present a united front against the common enemy."

LAUDS LA FOLLETTE

Referring to the candidacy of Senator La Follette and Wheeler, Mr. Maddoo declared that while he was not in accord with much that Senator La Follette is advocating, as for instance his proposed court amendment to the Constitution, nevertheless, he deems admiration and respect for the courageous fight he has made against entrenched privilege and the inevitable forces of government to drive the corrupt and incompetent Republican administration out of power.

"But," he continued, "we are confronted with a question of how far we can go in our reaction can be unseated," adding that the success of the Democratic ticket offered the best means to that end.

Mr. Maddoo's letter was addressed to Senator Sherman, chairman of the Democratic speakers' bureau.

"The burning question in this campaign is graft and corruption at Washington," Mr. Maddoo said. "This issue transcends every other issue and international issue because the death of the republic is inevitable if bribery and corruption are big places are to pollute the administration of public offices. There can be no government if it is clean. What is the result?"

OUTLINES OIL CASE

The letter then outlined the case involving the leasing of the oil and coal lands in the investigation of Charles E. Forbes' administration of the Veterans' Bureau and the Senate committee's inquiry into the Department of Justice.

"Mr. Coolidge," it continued, "has not yet uttered a word of condemnation of these men nor of these scandals nor given evidence of that blinding indignation which would be inevitable expression of those moral values of which he so movingly speaks."

Mr. Coolidge has no sympathy with the common men and women of America, the letter said. "He is always inarticulate where they are concerned, but when privilege is at stake, he speaks."

He would not approve a law granting even "token" insurance (or "token" pension) to the veterans of the World War, but he upheld the Mellon plan which would give the largest percentage of reduction in taxation to the wealthy classes and to the interests which have benefited most by the value of those soldiers upon the field of battle.

"He vetoed the bill to increase the compensation of underpaid employees in the postal service, but he is a strong defender of the McNary-McCumber tariff bill, which takes every penny of the tariff off the backs of the people and child in America for benefit of privilege and private monopoly."

VEILED PENSION

He vetoed the bill to give a small increase in the pensions of aged and disabled veterans of the Civil War to make their dying years more easy, but he refused to reduce the pension of a man who served in the Civil War for two weeks strenuous campaigning.

Speaking as he will tomorrow night in the home State of Charles W. Bryan, the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, Mr. La Follette is expected to discuss the railroad situation.

Coolidge Will Not Leave Desk to Seek Votes

(By A. P. Night Wire)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President Coolidge spent today resting in his study, surrounded by two more weeks filled with conferences and some speaking engagements facing him before the campaign closes.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge attended services this morning at the First Congregational Church, where they were accompanied by Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Boston and Charles A. Littlefield of Lynn, Mass. While House guests.

Mr. Coolidge will remain at his desk during the closing weeks of the campaign, limiting his participation, as heretofore, to conferences with various party leaders. The President has impressed upon his recent callers the necessity for organization to get out the vote and to this end his efforts in a partial way will be directed.

INDIANA SAFE FOR COOLIDGE

La Follette Out of Running With Hoosiers

State Ticket Likely to Go Against G.O.P.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, March 3, 1925. The American nation tonight faces the greatest crisis in its history since the Union was saved from disruption half a century ago.

With the deadlock of the last three years prevailing in Congress—the House deadlocked on the election of a President and the Senate deadlocked on the election of a Vice-President—the prospect is that the country will be without a government for the next four years.

President being chosen by March 3, it is now proposed to amend the Constitution to remove this defect by authorizing Congress to provide for the succession in such emergency.

The country would have been spared this latest stage of chaos if the House had elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the House, and the Senate had elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the Senate.

ATTENDANCE SHORT

But the Senate has been no capable than the House of discharging its duty. Although the Senate has elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the House, and the Senate had elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the Senate.

COOLIDGE GAIN

On several ballots Coolidge went as high as twenty-four votes, and the House of Representatives has elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the House, and the Senate had elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the Senate.

FAIRLY PREZENT

The Democrats and third-party leaders were fairly present in the House of Representatives, but the House of Representatives has elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the House, and the Senate had elected Charles E. Hughes, who has been chosen by the Senate.

UNION VOTE UNCERTAIN

The attitude of organized labor in Indiana is one that has all leaders guessing. If the vote were divided today, it would be a solid for Coolidge on the national ticket. The miners of the South, who are solid for Coolidge, would like to vote for La Follette, and the coal miners of West Virginia, who are solid for Coolidge, would like to vote for La Follette.

La Follette to Speak in Omaha, Then Turn East

(By A. P. Night Wire)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 19.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, independent Presidential candidate, was on his way tonight to Omaha, where he will deliver his last campaign speech west of the Mississippi River.

After his speech in Omaha, he will turn eastward to spend the remainder of the campaign in the middle-west and eastern States. The Wisconsin Senator took advantage of his stay in St. Louis, Mo., where he delivered an address Friday night, to rest in anticipation of two more weeks strenuous campaigning.

Speaking as he will tomorrow night in the home State of Charles W. Bryan, the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, Mr. La Follette is expected to discuss the railroad situation.

Writer Looks Into Future and Sees Consternation Over Country and Civil Strife Threatening on March 4 if Presidential Election is Given to House

In order to portray graphically the chaos in the government that would be a grave possibility if none of the candidates for President should receive a majority of the electoral votes on November 4, Mr. Henning, projecting himself into the future, imagines in the following the dispatch he may be called upon to write on March 3 next.

ASKS FUND QUIZ ON LA FOLLETTE

Butler Returns Attack of Progressive Leader

Wisconsin Quota Alone is $500,000, He Charges

Senate Body Soon Will Look Into Parties' Finances

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—An impartial investigation of campaign funds by the Senate committee is all that the Republican National Committee asks, Chairman William M. Butler declared today at G.O.P. headquarters.

Such an investigation, Mr. Butler asserted, will disclose the La Follette "slush" fund of $500,000 in Wisconsin alone, an amount far out of proportion to the fund that Senator La Follette says was raised for the G.O.P. in Pennsylvania.

COMMITTEE READY

This counter-attack by the Republican national chairman to the charges made by Senator La Follette and his attorney, Frank P. Walsh, who says a fund of perhaps $100,000 or $120,000 is being raised to elect Coolidge and Hughes, was made as Senator La Follette and his committee left for Washington to open hearings there this week into the campaign funds of all parties.

Mr. Walsh, who is representing Senator La Follette before the Senate committee, is also in Washington to open hearings there this week into the campaign funds of all parties.

"Since the Senatorial investigation committee has decided to continue its work, I am confident that the Republican National Committee will co-operate in producing such information as is desired."

"We hope that the committee will go into the matter of the funds raised by our opponents as well. On September 3, last, in Milwaukee, Wis., 100 La Follette leaders held a meeting and decided to raise $500,000 in that State. Among the present speakers were Hermon Ekern, Attorney-General, who presided; Gov. John J. Blaine and State Treasurer Sol Levitt. The $500,000 was to be apportioned to various Congressional districts, the third, fourth and fifth, each raising $15,000. These were the fund for Wisconsin was much larger than the fund for Pennsylvania. I can only hope that the third-party managers have been successful in filling their quotas than we have."

DEMANDS INQUIRY

"The Republican party has no objection to the raising of funds for the third-party candidates by such gigantic organizations as the American Federation of Labor or the railroad brotherhoods. But such funds must of necessity become the subject of inquiry by the Senatorial committee if it is to continue hearings at this time."

"We have gone into the campaign and given the amount of our budget, the receipts to date and a survey of our expenditures. It is now apparent to the Republican men and women of America that we are conducting an economical campaign. Moreover, it is clear that we need more funds to keep the campaign going. We are fighting on the principles for which we are fighting to contribute in order that we may win the election on November 4 without a deficit."

"The election is just two weeks away. Already we have had smoke screens to divert attention from the main issues. During the campaign we have been put up by our opponents. But we are confident that the Senatorial committee will be able to see through the campaign and that we will win the election on November 4 without a deficit."

SHAVES DENIES ALL HOPE ABANDONED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Clem Shaver, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, today issued the following statement:

"The statement attributed to Arthur Hays Sulzberger, editor of the New York Times, that I have abandoned all hope of the election of Mr. Davis is ridiculous. I was never in a position to make such a statement. I am confident that the Democratic party will win the election on November 4 without a deficit."

PROPOSED MOVEMENT

The President has been advised that the Succession Act does not apply when there has been a failure of the President to resign or to be removed from office. The Succession Act is now being considered by the Senate.

COOLIDGE SPEECH Thursday Night to be Broadcast

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—When President Coolidge speaks here Thursday night at 9:30 o'clock before the midyear meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, his address will be broadcast nationally to an exceptionally large radio audience. Arrangements for the broadcasting of the President's talk are being made by Station WCAP of Washington.

The eastern division meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, which will bring together hundreds of representatives of the business and financial world from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific, is being held here for the purpose of considering important business problems of particular interest to that section of the country. The main subjects listed for discussion are "Waste and Extravagance in Business and Government," "Are Taxes Reducing Living Standards?" "Government Regulation of Business," and "The National Chamber as an Aid to Business."

(By A. P. Night Wire)

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Chairman Borah and the other members of the special Senate investigating committee left here today for Washington, where on Tuesday they will resume the inquiry into campaign contributions and expenditures.

Senator Borah will call before the committee Clem L. Shaver, chairman, and James W. Gerard, treasurer, of the Democratic National Committee for questioning both on the amounts collected and expended by that organization and the proposed budget for the remainder of the campaign.

Samuel Gompers, president, and Frank Morrison, secretary, of the American Federation of Labor, also will be interrogated as to the amount and the source of funds which John M. Nelson, field marshal for Senator Robert M. La Follette, told the committee he understood the Labor Federation was expending on its own initiative in behalf of the candidacy of the independent Presidential candidate.

At the outset, however, the inquiry at Washington will be centered around La Follette's charges of a Republican "slush" fund and with that end in view, subpoenas have been issued for Joseph R. Grundy, a Bristol, Pa., yarn manufacturer, and chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Republican National Committee; Edward T. Stansbury of Philadelphia; Nathan T. Folwell, treasurer of the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia; and a witness from that city and from Washington.

Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City will be present as personal counsel for Senator La Follette and has asked the opportunity of cross-examining witnesses. He expects to have associated with him Samuel Undermyer of New York, a supporter of the Democratic ticket.

PEACE SETTLES ON BORDERLAND

Elimination of Rebel Chief Relieves Mexico
Brother of Villa and Aide,
Thorns in Flesh
Former Insurgents Banished to United States

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 19.—With the recent unconditional surrender of the rebel leader Hipolito Villa and Rafael Santos to the military governor of the State of Chihuahua, Gen. Arnulfo R. Gomez, the border State may now be considered definitely cleared of insurgent elements.
For some time there have been no properly organized bands in the State in question except those whose chiefs have now turned in their arms. The periodical acts of petty brigandage and robbery which have been reported from time to time, including a few cases of kidnapping were the work of malcontents, such as always exist in wild and mountainous sections of Mexico, but they have had no connection, even indirect, with the late revolution.

VILLA SUPER OUTLAW
But Villa and his associates were of a different class. They knew how to organize and the fact that Villa always operated in his native
State made him more dangerous than would otherwise have been the case. He was a real thorn in the side of the military authorities, and possessed that inherent capacity as a rebel which characterized his famous brother Pancho, who cost Mexico many millions of pesos and many good lives.

Villa's specialty was the holding up of trains. His success in this respect was remarkable, for he arranged his preliminary to a hold-up were so well carried out that the Federal troops invariably arrived on the scene when it was all over. Time after time it was reported that his capture was imminent, but it never materialized.
In the earlier days of the revolution, he was in command of quite a large body of troops, but later his activities were easily reduced to mere or less permanent refuge in the mountains of Chihuahua, of which he had a perfect knowledge.

ALLIES ARE ALIENATED
All his co-operators were gradually taken by government troops, or surrendered to them, and Villa for the last few months had to play a lone hand, making sudden raids on the smaller and outlying stations along the track, taking what he could get, rather than effect the capture of a large force, his name will always be associated with Mexico's revolutionary history.

In his best days he was reported to carry two horses for every one of his men, the result being that on more than one occasion when the Federal cavalry believed they were close on his track, the insurgent was operating at another point many kilometers away.
He now is gone for good, and is to reside in future across the border within the United States.
His surrender to the military governor of the State of Chihuahua was unconditional, but permission was guaranteed him to leave the republic. When he laid down his arms, he turned in upward of 200

ROMANCE OF FUR
When Voyagers Entered Wilderness They Stood by the Stars

The romance of the fur trade is not over. The wreck of the Hudson Bay Company's steamer Lady Klondike, which helped to advance the fur trade in the Arctic region, was found in the Arctic ocean as a thrilling as any of the old tales.
Unlike the earlier vessels in the trade, she was equipped with radio apparatus, which helped to locate the wreck. But when the voyager and trader of old struck out into the wilderness they had the world behind them and steered their course by the stars over river and plain. The most remarkable of these star-gazers was probably David Thompson, the accuracy of whose boundary surveys remains undisputed.

The "Adventures of England trading into Hudson's Bay" was the only corporate company which ruled over an area as large as Europe. With it will always be associated the name of Donald A.
Smith, who, starting as a lad on the bleak coast of Labrador, where he spent thirteen years, rose from the position of clerk to Governor, and finally took his seat in the House of Lords as Lord Strathcona.

But there was not much romance in his snowshoes tramp of 1000 miles to Lachine to consult a doctor about the blindness of his eyes which threatened blindness. One incident of his life in Labrador was revealed at a meeting of the railway committee of the House of Commons when he was a member. An enthusiastic promoter wanted to build a railway from Quebec to Hamilton Inlet, which, he declared, was an open port all the year round.

The old fur trader rose and remarked that was news to him, for he distinctly remembered walking across the inlet on snowshoes in the winter of the sea. That, of course, killed the bill.
The romantic features of the company probably reached their zenith under Sir George Simpson, whose movements by canoe and saddle earned him the title of "fastest of travelers." His interest in the fur trade was not merely maintained in the real history of the fur trade to preserve the tale of his adventures, but he was also a successful adventurer. He was a successful adventurer. He was a successful adventurer.

FIND BANK NOTES
FLOATING IN SEA
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MALACA (Straits Settlements), Oct. 19.—A strong box filled with bank notes floating calmly upon the sea off Estepa almost gave fishermen who found it severe attacks of heart failure. The notes were in piles and weighed 120 pounds. But upon examination it was found that the bank notes were of the new republic of Riff, formed by the outlaw tribesmen in Africa, and of no value except to the Rifians.
It is believed that a smuggler was attempting to run the gauntlet of Spanish gunboats patrolling the African coast and, fearing discovery, hurried over the box with its bank notes.

ARGENTINA TO TRY
CULTURE OF OLIVES
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
BUENOS AIRES (Argentina),
Oct. 19.—The Agricultural Department has secured about 25,000 seedlings of olive trees for experimental planting in the provinces of Entre Rios and Corrientes, where the climatic conditions are favorable to the cultivation of the olive tree. Experts have come to the conclusion that these provinces could grow olives of a quality which would compare very favorably with the product of Southern Spain and Italy. The olive already is produced on an extensive scale in northern provinces, but the quantity is not sufficient to meet the domestic demand.

"Madame," said the doctor, "I shall have to put your husband's throat with nitrate of silver."
"Please use nitrate of gold, doctor," exclaimed Mrs. Moneybags.
"The expense is quite immaterial."

EXCHANGED NAME WITH DEAD MAN

Ex-Convict Tells Story of Stolen Identity When Cornered by Evidence

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
LOUISVILLE (Ky.), Oct. 19.—
How Jesse L. Earheart, 37 years of age, took the name of a dead man he found and for some time lived under the name of the man who was killed, was told by Earheart to officers here, the latter said.
Earheart said, according to the officers, that he had just completed a three-year term in Waco, Tex., had left there and had reached Texarkana, Ark., when, in the railroad yard, he came from between two box cars and found a body, broken and sprawling backward across a track.
The man had been killed, evidently in a switching accident. No one was in sight, according to Earheart's story, and he determined that Jesse L. Earheart should pass into oblivion.
Only a few minutes for him to act, but in that brief period, according to his quoted story, he exchanged identification papers, articles and a portion of clothing.
And as he left the scene, what he took was also served, and he was mangled and dead, while L.
G. Sway, a switchman, walked back here by also serving with Sway's mysterious disappearance became a local mystery, as the body was declared not to be Sway's.

Earheart told his quoted story when he was called upon here to explain the difference between the names he gave and papers, Army discharge record and a switch-man's card, which helped to advance the fur trade in the Arctic
region, was found in the Arctic ocean as a thrilling as any of the old tales.

Still, it washes 50 lbs. of dry clothes an hour
—just twice as much as ordinary washers. You know what THAT means to YOU on washday.
Delicate silks—fine linens—heavy blankets—crusty, greasy overalls, all spick-span-clean!
You know too, how hard it is to clean wristbands, collars and cuffs—yet the Maytag washes them immaculately without a bit of hand rubbing.

The secret lies in the exclusive Gyrafoam principle. Imagine a napkin in a pan of rapidly boiling water—tumbled about every which way. Multiply that water tempest many, many times and you have the Gyrafoam in action.

Now you must try this washer right in your home where you can see how carefully, thoroughly and quickly it will dispose of your wash.
So—do this before next washday. Call the nearest dealer. Have him bring a Maytag to your home. There is no obligation. If the washer doesn't sell itself—don't keep it! That is the Maytag way—the way Maytag has attained world leadership.

Defered payments your favor.

THIS TEACHES US
President Coolidge, whose literary taste is excellent, said at a White House luncheon:
"I mistrust best sellers, the authors whose names are household words and whose bank accounts never descend below four figures.
Look at Poe and Whitman.
They stand out above all their contemporaries today, yet Whitman lived in a little wooden shanty in Camden, while Poe lived in a little wooden shanty in Fordham, and they were both behindhand with the rent."
This teaches us that genius will out even during the life of the writer.—[Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.]

Paint Baby's Name on Him
Hospital-born babies wear head necklaces with their names spelled out in beads, in order that each baby will be sent home to his folks and not to someone he doesn't belong to. But Johns Hopkins Hospital at Baltimore is not even going to take this chance. Just as soon as a baby is born in its maternity ward the shipping clerk now paints the family name on the back in a harmless kind of indelible ink such as will not wash off for three or more weeks. Besides it is found that bead necklaces chafed the tender skin of new-born infants. — [Capper's Weekly.]

gland.

9 Outstanding Maytag Features

- 1—Washes faster. The Gyrafoam Principle creates a more highly emulsi-fied, turbulent and continuously effective water action. No idle waste.
- 2—Washes cleaner. The Gyrafoam Principle mixes the soap evenly throughout the water, and forces the soap cleaning, scouring washing solution through the meshes of the clothes. No idle waste.
- 3—Largest hourly capacity in world—50 lbs. ordinary family wash per hour.
- 4—Most compact washer made—takes floor space only 25 inches square.
- 5—Cast aluminum tub—can't warp, rust, rot, swell, split nor corrode.
- 6—Easily adjusted to your height, and height of tub.
- 7—Clothes can't be put in or taken out while washer is running.
- 8—Tub cleans itself in 30 seconds.
- 9—Metal swinging wringer. Low Swings into 7 positions. Adjusts itself automatically for handkerchiefs or blankets. Automatic drainboard. Instant manual-release. All parts standard.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

LOCAL LAUGHS

Each week The Times produces a film entitled "Local Laughs," consisting of the funniest jokes submitted by local people. Weekly prizes are paid of $1, $2, and $5, and a list of the names of the winners, together with the jokes for which they were given, is given daily in a column in The Times. Prizes-winners' names and addresses of winners, appear only on the screen. Jokes involving honorable mention will be given a place of honor on The Times comic page each week-day, and each of these contributors will receive a souvenir of acknowledgment.

THE GUMPS—SAY IT WITH FLOUR

MY DEAR FRIENDS—I HAVE SEEN MANY CITIES BUT NEVER A CITY LIKE MINNEAPOLIS—I UNDERSTAND THE STATE OF MINNESOTA HAS 11,000 LAKES ALL TEEMING WITH FISH AND IF EVERY FISH IN YOUR BEAUTIFUL LAKES HAD THE ELOQUENCE OF A WEBSTER THEIR UNITED VOICES WOULD SING THE PRAISE OF THIS QUEEN OF CITIES AND STILL FAIL TO DO JUSTICE TO ITS THOUSAND AND ONE BEAUTIES—

THE NAME "MINNEAPOLIS" IS ENGRAVED ON THE HEART OF EVERY TRUE GUMP AS MY GREAT GRANDFATHER, AMBROSE GUMP, IS THE MAN WHO BUILT THE FIRST FLOUR MILL IN THIS MAGNIFICENT METROPOLIS— WITHOUT THE FLOUR OF MINNEAPOLIS THE WORLD WOULD BE AS UNDERNOURISHED AS A PAUPER'S STEP-CHILD—IT IS IN THIS GARDEN CITY GIVEN OUT TO THE HUNGRY, MINNEAPOLIS THE WORLD WOULD LIVE ON RICE AND CHOP SUEY.

IN MOST PARTS OF THE COUNTRY TEN MILLS MAKE ONE CENT—IN MINNEAPOLIS TEN MILLS MAKE AT LEAST A MILLION DOLLARS FOR THE HAPPY PEOPLE OF THIS MUNICIPALITY— TO THINK THAT ONLY THIS CITY BUT ITS BEAUTIFUL SUBURBS LIKE ST. # Marshal Destroys $200,000 Philadelphia Liquor Stock

This and Shed a Tear—The famous Lipschultz liquor stock, which has long been an issue between the government and Philadelphia liquor dealers, found its way into the Schuylkill River last week, Marshal Mathews and deputies officiating at the ceremony. The stock was valued at $200,000. (P. & A. photo.)

Victim of Gland Robbery Sues Slayers—Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, Franks slayers, will probably be brought into court again to answer the charges preferred against them by Charles Ream, Chicago taxi driver, who identifies them as the men who kidnaped and mutilated him. (P. & A. photo.)

Mae Murray for Home-Made Goods—Patriotic Mae Murray, upon learning that the Rolls-Royce is now manufactured in America, chose her Salamanca model from the new Hollywood home of the Rolls-Royce. The popular cinema star is here pictured in sports attire, setting forth in her new Rolls to conquer the California outdoor world.

New Zep in Native Haunts—The above photo of the ZR-3 is one of the last taken of the huge dirigible before she began her journey to the United States. The photo was taken at Starnberger Lake, Woersching, Starnberg, Bavaria, by Paul Von Neindorff, and mailed by the most direct route to The Times for reproduction.

Nosing Down to Her New Home—This exceptionally fine view of the new super-Zeppelin ZR-3 was made from an escort plane just before the air monster nosed down to inspect her new home at Lakehurst, N. J., where she will berth alongside the Shenandoah, her sister ship. The dirigible is just completing her history-making flight across the Atlantic from Germany. She comes as part of the German reparations debt to the United States. (P. & A. photo.)

She Can Put on Airs Now—Mrs. Howard Linn of Chicago is entitled, according to social ethics, to assume a greater hauteur than was hers a week ago. Mrs. Linn was the first Chicago woman with whom the young Prince of Wales danced on his recent visit to the Windy City. (P. & A. photo.)

Another Title for Wendells—For the second time in two years a daughter of Jacob Wendell will become a member of the British nobility when Miss Philippa Wendell becomes the bride of the Earl of Galloway. Her sister Catherine married the only son of the Earl of Carnarvon in 1922. (P. & A. photo.)

The Prince Gets a Laugh—Young Dave Windsor caused both a delay and a laugh when he halted the procession at Chicago last week long enough to eat a Salvation Army doughnut. Everybody, including the young prince, seems to be getting a great kick out of the episode. (P. & A. photo.)

Hold Girl Wife for Murder—Mrs. Mario Zelio, 19, mother of a 4-year-old girl, is held at Jersey City on the charge of murdering John Renne, 20, a former sweetheart, following a chance meeting and an altercation the night of October 12. (P. & A. photo.)

Jersey Jury Acquits Woman Slayer—Mary Bruno, 22-year-old Newark (N. J.) mother, was recently acquitted by a jury on a charge of killing Carmine Marino, the man who duped her into an illegal marriage. The girl has an 8-month-old child and is expecting a second. (P. & A. photo.)

NEW PEACE TEMPLE BUILT ON SAND, SAYS POINCARÉ

Neutralizing Rhine, Not Words, Lies End of Europe's Wars, Ex-Premier Asserts

Paris, Oct. 19.—(By Associated Press.)—The French ex-president, Raymond Poincaré, today asserted that the peace of Europe could not be built on sand, but only on a firm foundation of military and naval power.

He said that the League of Nations, which was created after the first world war, was a mere "house of cards" and that the only way to prevent a new world war was by maintaining a strong military and naval force.

Poincaré, who was born in 1856, was a member of the French Academy and served as prime minister of France from 1917 to 1920. He was also a member of the French Academy of Sciences and the French Academy of Letters.

He said that the League of Nations was a "house of cards" and that the only way to prevent a new world war was by maintaining a strong military and naval force.

DEATH VICTOR IN RACE WITH SHIP

Liner is Delayed and Woman Passenger Dies

Doctors Say She Could Have Been Saved on Shore

Romance Also Features Trip of the Kroomland

Death won in a race with the Panama-Pacific liner Kroomland that yesterday limped into port forty-eight hours late from New York. It was added by engine trouble which cut down the giant vessel's speed and prevented the ship from reaching port in time to obtain medical aid for a woman passenger who had been seized with a critical illness.

Mrs. M. M. Brown of New York City was the passenger. She died shortly before midnight Sunday of a complete heart failure, a complication of the disease which the ship's physicians stated could have been combated successfully if the ship had held her regular schedule.

Another unseen passenger rode the ship as she docked at Los Angeles Harbor. It was Romance, the vessel which was delayed because of engine trouble.

The ship's physician stated that the woman passenger could have been saved on shore if the ship had held her regular schedule.

SISTER RESCUES LAD FROM BEAR

Injuries Expected to Prove Fatal to Boy

Girl Battles Enraged Beast
for Brother's Life

Father Kills Animal After Attack on Child

Before frightened neighbors could rally to her assistance, Mrs. Davis Reut. 32-year-old daughter of William Weatherman, 40, forced her way into a small enclosure containing two beehives in the rear of her father's home in South Canyon early yesterday and after a terrific struggle dragged her 14-year-old brother Jack to safety, but not before one of the maddened animals had probably fatally injured the lad.

Entering the bear-pen with a pail of water, the boy was seized by one of the beasts, and when he could leap to safety beyond scared screams, Mrs. Scott, who lives in the home, rushed to the scene, although only partly clothed. On realizing the immediate danger, she rushed to the aid of the woman, pulling an unwieldy automobile door open and attacking the infuriated monster with her hands and feet, in which she was badly scratched, was able, with the assistance of the neighbors, to hold the animal a short time after he had begun to growl, until the police came with the clutches of the bear.

KILLS ANIMAL

Fearing for the safety of the neighbors, who were about the maddened beast broke his chains and escape, Mr. Weather was called upon to shoot the animal. The second bear, chained a short distance away, was thoroughly frightened by the shot and will be presented to a local zoo at once. Mr. Weather was paid $100 for his services. The case at the Hollywood Community Hospital, where the bear was kept, was assigned in charge of the institution, said his chances of recovery were small. The animal was shot in the right arm, practically all of the

of the boy's body.

Health authorities took the head of the dead animal and will make an analysis to determine whether the beast was suffering from rabies.

Both bears had achieved considerable notoriety in this section of the country and were secured from the Lasky Studios by Bud, 26-year-old son, a year ago. "Zane Grey," the male bear, named in honor of the author, was the one to attack the 12-year-old boy of Dakota, the "Wendell."

FAMILIAR SIGHT
Neighbors in the canyon nearly half a mile above Hollywood are very well acquainted with a sight of the bears which makes them sometimes be led through the hills by a small leather leash in the hands of either Ind. Weather van has been an animal trainer for a number of years and said yesterday that this was the first time he had ever had an animal "go bad" on him. Many times he had permitted the animal to take peanuts from between his teeth, he said.

Near-by neighbors who witnessed a part of Mrs. Scutt's fight with the bear, were organizing last night to present the plucky woman's name before the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. Her act according to several, was the most and were firm in their belief that if the boy lives, he will owe his life to the quick and unthinking bravery of his sister. The same neighbors also breathed a sigh of relief when Mr. Weatherwax assured them that he would lose no time in getting rid of the second bear.

WHAT IMPROVE STREETS
The City Council has ordered the improvement of the following streets: Rodeo Road from Third avenue to Ninth avenue; One Hundred Twelfth avenue from Santa Monica Boulevard; Franklin Circle from Vine street to Franklin avenue.

RADIO HELP FOR FRUIT GROWERS

Uplands Temperatures to be Broadcast Nightly

KHJ Plan Will be Benefit to Ranch Owners

Fine Musical Program Given Last Evening

BY CLAUDE FORBES CRANE

Our new fairy, godmother of last evening was a very important personage. In fact, she was not so much a godmother as one of the angels of Southern California. Officially she is the director of the American Can Company and was personally represented by W. C. Schen, manager of the department. The Luboviski trio composed of Calmon Luboviski, violin; Maurice Amsterdam, cellist; and Claire Forbes Crane, pianist, made its first appearance under the auspices of the department. The musical program Floyd D. Young, meteorologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau at Los Angeles, Paul Armstrong, of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, and T. R. Woodbridge of the Liberty Grove Operating Corporation of Upland, gave speeches on "Frost Prevention."

The program was primarily to get the officials of the Department of Agriculture and the ranchers who are dependent upon their fruit crops for success or failure into closer contact. One of the great benefits which radiance is going to reap this winter from the orchard heating department is the novel idea of Mr. Schen to broadcast nightly the temperature from Upland together with the temperature which it will be at 2 a.m., thus allowing the ranchers to prepare their orchard heaters at the first intimation of approaching frost. This should save Southern California citrus growers thousands of dollars.

FINE PROGRAM

What could have been better last evening than this musical interlude with educational experience on a subject which we should all know? The first trio number was the Luboviski Trio in three movements. It is a magnificent work, harmonious in color with passionate melodies and tempestuous feeling. Those playing with Mr. Luboviski could not help but give of the best, the best in them. As he sits at the first chair, whether of his quartet, trio or orchestra, his vital, sinuous and well-nigh impeccable musicianship sweeps all before it with contagious enthusiasm, and he feels that this characteristic trait must have transmitted itself to all who listened last night. The Luboviski Trio with its suggestion of the pastoral and colors of soft

SHOT IS LAID TO CROOK REVENGE

Condofer picked up the two men and declared a search of their room disclosed a pistol with the numbers, filed off and a mask. They were booked on suspicion of robbery. Their fingerprints will be compared with those on a screen removed from the Parsons house, and they will be confronted by Mrs. Parsons as soon as her physical condition permits.

Mrs. Parsons was shot by a man who came up to her while she was seated at a piano and demanded her ring. She gave it to him and he then asked if there was more jewelry in the house. Making several attempts to kill her, she told the police, he demanded that she bring it to him. When she tried to dart through a door he fired at her.

Parsons wears several expensive diamonds. Her husband, a prominent banker, has known this and drawing the conclusion that Mrs. Parsons also would have valuable jewelry, may have determined to rob her and then shoot her out of revenge on the late-parson's lawyer.

SEEN BEFORE CRIME
The police yesterday established how the man entered the house and how he escaped. It was at first supposed he went in and out through the front door, but it was discovered he had used the rear. He entered by removing a screen from a window, and when he left jumped into the yard of an adjoining house, went over the back fence, where he stepped on a box that broke beneath his weight and ran through the drive way of 303 West Fifty-fifth place. Occupants of that house saw the man running and running soon after the time of the shooting. This information was obtained by Detective Lieutenants Jarvis and Craig found the screen, and declared it bore a good finger print.

Yvonne Asboe and her brother Merlyn, of 307 West Fifty-fifth street, told the police they saw a man walking up and down in front of the Parsons home early in the evening. He passed at least five times, they said. The detective believed this man may have been going for Parsons to leave the house to go to his auto rental park at Main and Ninth streets.

"I believe a personal enemy did this," Parsons said. "I have gone armed for years fearing an attack and I believe an enemy, knowing this, waited till I was out of the way."

The wounded woman, who is at Angeles Hospital, was still in an extremely critical condition yesterday and little hope was expressed for her recovery.

might feelly partake of the peanuts—even urged that they do so. The one side of the case was the other that they would not detect the taste of the bananas pears and apples.

BEGIN TO WEAKEN

So on the third and fourth days, Merrill and Shields munched away at the peanuts. On the fifth day they began to weaken and sweat.

It was on the morning of the sixth day that the staff called the attention of Clerk Merrill to the fact that the Courtroom rats had found out about the case. Merrill looked at the sack. Sure enough, there was a hole nibbled in the bottom and small scraps of paper all around, indicating that the rats had garbled their meal with scraps of various court documents.

Exhibits are supposed to be guarded by clerk and bailiff, and although counsel stipulated that attaches might eat the peanuts, no such invitation had been extended to the rats. So it was up to Merrill and Shields to do something. The rats came at night, and seemingly would not be forestalled by any ordinary means.

What to do? The pair conferred and decided that they could beat the rats only by beating them to Exhibit A. Followed two days of frenzied peanut eating by Merrill and Shields. Saturday they cracked under the strain.

"We stalled. If we don't get help by Monday morning we cannot be responsible for grave consequences," said Merrill.

"Or cyanide," added Merrill. "They say it finishes you quick."

cepted by motion-picture producer. Conductor E. E. Corson of 1442 Perry street, Los Angeles, was in charge of the train which struck Pearson.

Mrs. Ygnacia Escabedo, 66 years of age, of 1505 West Fifty-eighth place, was struck down while crossing the street at Naomi avenue and Washington Boulevard, suffering a skull fracture from which she is not expected to recover. After being attended by Dr. Dorn at Receiving Hospital she was transferred to Clara Barton Hospital. The driver of the car that struck her, police said, was Francisco Vasquez.

BABIES HURT

Two babies, 4 and 2½ years of age, were the principal sufferers when a car driven by Mrs. Clara Pruet, 31 years of age, of 3103 Coolidge avenue, turned over after a collision at Paducah Road and Sheridan Park Drive. Marnie, son of 1746 Bishop Road, the older child, and Mrs. Pruet's son, Thomas Pruet, each received a skull fracture. Mrs. Pruet's collarbone was broken and she had many bruises and lacerations. Years of age, Rosie, 15, and George, 2½, also in the Pruet car, escaped with minor hurts.

The other car in the collision was one rented from the Lull's Auto Company by Manuel Rodriguez. Rodriguez told police the car was driven by a man who fled after the accident. Rodriguez is being held for investigation while police are searching for the other man. The injured were treated at the Receiving Hospital.

Struck by a speeding motorist who failed to stop and render aid, Officer Harry Waterford, negro policeman, was in the Mt. Washington Hospital yesterday in a critical condition and suffering from a basal skull fracture. According to witnesses, the officer was hit by a racing machine yesterday morning at Aliso and Alameda streets while in the act of making an arrest. Waterford, prisoner, who later was booked on a drunk charge, also was struck by the speeding car. He gave his name as Ivan Hollis. He was injured only slightly.

Twenty-five minutes later, a machine similar to the description of the car which struck Officer Waterford, crashed into the curbing at Avenue 18 and Pasadena avenue. The driver, Harry Lidner, of 1332 West Twelfth street, and his companion, A. F. Ruiz, of 3730 Buchanan street, were detained at Central Station when they told Detective Lieutenant Roselli conflicting stories concerning the route they had traveled. Ruiz was released, Lidner was returning from a party at Compton. Later they were released. Lidner was treated for minor injuries at the Receiving Hospital.

Marsh Reported

Selected to be

Utilities Chief

J. O. Marsh, now an engineer in the State Highway Department, will be appointed chief engineer of the City Utilities Department by the Board of Public Utilities at its meeting tomorrow afternoon, according to reports at the City Hall, which were to the effect that President Bogardus and Commissioners Johnson and Leeds, members of the board, had agreed upon Marsh's appointment. The new chief engineer succeeds F. A. Lorentz, who resigned. Marsh will receive $150 a month salary. The board desires to have the salary increased to $200 a month by the time the new charter takes effect on July 1, when the chief engineer will become general manager of the department.

PETITION FOR PAVEMENT

Petitions have been received by the City Council asking for the paving and improvement of Laurel Canyon Road in the vicinity of Hollywood Boulevard, and for the scarifying of Wilton Place from Exposition Boulevard to Fifty-Seventh place.

UNDERGROUND RIVER STRUCK

Million Gallons Are Pumped Daily from Sewer Trench

Large Pit Formed as Earth Near Ditch Caves in

Officials, Unable to Account for Water Flow

While others are complaining of the water shortage, the Thomas L. Haverly Company, at work on the big outfall sewer in the southwest part of Los Angeles, is wondering what to do with the excess of aqueous liquid which was encountered in its excavations about three weeks ago and has been pumped out at the rate of nearly 1,000,000 gallons a day ever since.

The excavators during their work on this gigantic ditch, which has extended over many months, had had but little trouble with water until they struck this underground reservoir at a depth of about twenty-one feet near the intersection of Washington and Adams streets. But now they are having their hands full trying to get rid of the surplus moisture, which has delayed their digging operations to a considerable extent.

FLOW IS STEADY

When the workmen encountered the subterranean flood, they were flabbergasted to see a column of water rushing up from the bottom of the ditch to a height of about two feet, carrying with it a mass of sand. Steps were taken immediately to stem the swelling tide, but the water continued to flow in spite of all attempts to check it. All other work ceased for the time being, efforts being concentrated on how to fight the flood.

Two large pumps were installed, driven by electric motors and with a combined capacity of about 2500 gallons a minute. They have been in operation continuously day and night, ever since the water appeared. By this means it has been possible to keep the excavation sufficiently clear of water to enable the workmen to go on with their sewer operations, though at the cost of an immense amount of labor. There has been no reduction in the flow of water and the pumps are still emptying two large streams out on the surface of the ground, where they form a miniature river which runs into a nearby creek.

CAVE-INS SERIOUS

One of the most serious difficulties has been a series of cave-ins. Shortly after the water broke out in the bottom of the ditch, the stream began to eat out a cavity in one of the walls and soon the overlying material toppled down. Later there was a cave-in of the ground some twenty or thirty feet from the ditch, where a telephone and the men's tools. The former site of the shack, now a pile of rubble some thirty feet in diameter, and about ten feet deep.

R. G. Whinnery, engineer in charge of the work for the Haverly Company, stated that when the water first appeared he was of the opinion that they had struck a subterranean lake, but that after the cave-in of the telephone shack he had come to the conclusion that they had tapped an underground river.

"I believe that when the water found an opening the force of its flow washed away the sand supporting the earth above it," he said. "When the water struck the cave-in, it caused this piece of ground to sink." He said that the cave-in was not a simple one, but that it was a series of cave-ins along the course of this subterranean stream. All these cave-ins were washed out. Some three and five feet deep, and some eight feet deep.

A peculiar feature of the situation is that the flow of water is greater at midnight than at any other time of day, according to Mr. Whinnery. "During the day the volume of water diminishes appreciably," he said. "What causes this I don't know. Perhaps tidal action has something to do with it, though in what way I can't explain. Beyond this, the water is absolutely pure and there is nothing to indicate its being affected in any way by the ocean."

The land where this sewer is being constructed is level and rather low. A number of gardeners who live in the vicinity obtain an ample supply of water for irrigation purposes from wells not extending twenty-five feet in depth. One of these wells, about a quarter of a mile from the sewer, has run dry since the water was struck in the ditch, and its owner has made arrangements with the excavating company to obtain his water supply from its over-flowing pumps.

ACTRESS PROMINENT EASTERN STAR MEMBER

Not many actresses find time for joining lodges and similar organizations. But Mrs. Charles G. Craig, who enacts the role of Grandma Keene in "The Open Door" at the Morosco, now in its third week, is an exception.

Mrs. Craig is an active member of the Order of Eastern Star, which is having its State meeting in Los Angeles this week following the Masonic meeting last week. Mrs. Craig's affiliation is with San Jose Chapter No. 21, to which she was admitted at a day-time initiation by special dispensation from the Grand Lodge of California.

Remarkable Photography
The young man and the young woman were posing on the strangeness of life in general. A very favorite occupation nowadays when everybody is convinced that they have a special flair for soulfulness.

"Because it develops negative," inquired his companion with a knowing look.
"No, not that exactly. The other day I had my photograph taken in my riding things—not on horseback, you know, just standing with my crop in my hand. Today the photographer sent me word that the portraits are ready, and do you know, he says that they are all mounted."—[Exchange]

DIPHTHERIA PROTECTION GIVEN FREE

City Arranges Children's Clinics for Treatment Without Charge

The establishment of four free clinics in various parts of the city where parents may have their children immunized and protected against diphtheria, was announced Saturday by the City Health Department.

According to Dr. J. D. Dunshie, assistant health commissioner in charge of child welfare, the new stations have been established as a means of offering immunization service without charge which has only been available in private institutions in the past.

The doctor declared that the health office has investigated this method of treatment with the toxin-antitoxin mixture before adopting it. The investigation showed that for the last four years diphtheria has not been found in institutions giving the treatment while previous to that time the same institution were under quarantine for a greater part of each year.

The new clinics have been established at the Graves Dispensary, 121 North Broadway, on Mondays and Tuesdays; the Children's Hospital, 4616 Sunset Boulevard Tuesdays and Fridays; out-patient clinic of the General Hospital, Mondays and Fridays, and at the City Health Department, 144 North Broadway, Tuesdays and Fridays. The same service may also be obtained at the Los Angeles Children's Hospital, 1401 South Grand avenue, on Saturdays.

CHAIN STORE MEN EXPECT TRADE BOOM

Indication of Victory for Coolidge Bringing Business Revival, They Declare

A general business revival is predicted for the next few months by President Arthur C. Jones of the Southern California Pig-Glory Wiggly Company, who, with E. F. Stansbury, a director of the chain-store concern, discussed the situation of the chain-store business in Los Angeles yesterday after a six weeks' trip during which they covered some 10,000 miles of territory. Stansbury returned from the United States, indicating the re-election of President Coolidge, have given business interests a feeling of security that is reflected in a gradually increasing resumption of normal activities, he said.

The two chain-store officials covet the fact that the most important trip, with sojourns in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Washington, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake City and other important points.

"Conditions in Los Angeles are better than in most cities," Mr. Jones said, in commenting on the trip. "There is a general tone of optimism, however, everywhere things are looking up. Manufacturers report a steady increase in sales, a certain indication that affairs are getting back to normal. One of the surprising things we encountered was the large number of people planning to leave California."

Quite enough. Bobby? What do they call a man who has two wives?
Pa: A bigamist, Bobby.
Bobby: Pa, suppose he has more than two wives; what is he then?
Pa: An idiot. Now don't bother with any more questions.—[Edinburgh Scotsman]

TURKEY LEADS TO COURT

Wife Charges Mother-in-Law Failed to Turn on Gas and Dinner Was Ruined and Roast Started

When Mrs. Nellie Porter Haller opened the oven door to take out the Thanksgiving turkey she stood aghast at the sight that greeted her eyes. The turkey was there all right, but instead of presenting a golden brown aspect to her gaze, it was just like it had been when she put it in.

The Thanksgiving dinner was spoiled and another step was taken toward the divorce court.

"For it was her mother-in-law who forgot to turn on the gas that morning, according to Mrs. Haller's complaint, that led to the divorce from Walter Haller."

Naturally, Mrs. Haller made reference to the episode from time to time and when she did her husband scolded her unmercifully, she declared in her complaint that her physical and mental health suffered as a result of the incident. She claimed that her mother-in-law's neglect had caused her to lose sleep and to feel depressed.

Her marriage lasted a little less than a year, November 3, 1923, having been her wedding day and September 18, last, the date of the final break, according to the complaint.

Chief of Police Heath said he thought Capt. Plummer, formerly head of the vice division, was a good officer, but too anxious to enforce the law. Rev. ## FORGER CURED, SAYS SURGEON

Pressure Taken from Brain by Operations

Marked Change in Manner Noted by Doctor

Feels Years Younger, But Memory Still Faulty

Edward Mayerle, confessed forger who gambled with death when he submitted to two delicate brain operations in an effort to prove an old skull fracture responsible for his criminal tendencies, will be released from the Methodist hospital today, cured, according to Dr. Cecil Reynolds, operating surgeon.

Mayerle, who was arrested May 18, last, charged with passing a forged check for $74.25 admitted his guilt, but asserted he was the victim of a strange mental malady. Judge Hahn was impressed with Mayerle's story and granted him a highwayman eight years ago. Since that time, Mayerle said, his mind had been in a state of confusion. It was during one of these attacks that he passed the forged check, Mayerle said.

After X-ray pictures had partially substantiated Mayerle's claim of the skull fracture, city and county physicians declared that an operation might relieve any possible brain pressure and cause Mayerle to again become normal.

Judge Hahn released Mayerle on his own recognizance, providing he would submit to more operations. Ernest F. Bent, president of the employing Masters at the time of his arrest obtained the services of Dr. Reynolds who has been in charge of his treatment.

In the hospital yesterday, Mayerle said he was convinced of his complete recovery and thankful for the chance to make good.

MANNER HAS CHANGED

"I feel years younger—life is so different. I have no regrets, nothing to be ashamed of. I am sure Dr. Reynolds saved my life," he said. Mayerle's elative memory which tended to prove his claim of a brain disability still refuses to function clearly, Dr. Reynolds said.

"Acute pressure bearing against the brain has been relieved and there has been a marked change in his manner," Dr. Reynolds said. "When he was first admitted, his manner was that of a drunken man but since his second operation there has been a decided change for the better. Now he is drawing upon the store of mental as well as moral energy, and giving a short time to recovery of his physical strength, he is able to carry on as a respected member of society," he said. "Of course he will keep him under close observation for at least a year, but I am sure his reform will prove the contention of medical science that brain pressure is many times responsible for criminal acts."

Season's First Popular Concert Well Received

The season of Philharmonic Symphony popular concerts began yesterday afternoon. A splendid house gave evidence of unusual interest, and soloist, Marjorie Dodge, soprano, won prolonged applause for numbers, her performance for "Tristan and Isolde," by Wagner. Her strong, restrained timbre was especially effective, and her control of the orchestra extraordinary. The point most noticeable in her performance was her mastery of the dramatic portions of the number, her singing here and there, and the emotional depth.

Miss Dodge sang first the aria, "Alte de Lied," from "Tristan and Isolde," by Wagner, and for her second appearance, "Ballade" from "Laghetto," by Chopin. Her voice has a rich and pleasing quality, and she has deservedly become one of the most popular singers here. Especially in her middle register are her tones satisfying and round. The thrills and pathos of the last aria were rendered with surprising ease. If she occasionally pushes her voice, especially in the last aria, it is not to her credit.

of the best singers in Los Angeles, and it is interesting to comment that her appearances here over the past several years has shown a steady improvement in her work. Massenet's "Scenes Napolitaines" were heard for the first time in a number of years. The numbers are bright and happy in mood, were performed with brilliance, and well received. Meyerbeer's "Coronation March," from "The Prophet" and Tchaikovsky's "Overture Solenne," 1812," were also played.

The approved hospitals here are California Lutheran, Children's, Hollywood Hospital, Golden State, Hospital of the Good Samaritan, General Hospital, Methodist, St. Vincent's, Santa Fe, Clara Barton, Kaspare Cohn and Arthropedic.

Ninety hospitals in California were surveyed in the rating census of which fifty-nine or 64.4 per cent met the requirements.

Seaside Hospital in Long Beach and Pasadena Hospital in Pasadena are also on the approved list.

WHAT BIRTH RECORDS TELL
Boy babies predominate when mothers are young, but girls are more numerous in the latter life of mothers. So concludes Dr. A. S. Parkes, who has records of more than 8000 births at a hospital in Manchester, Eng. In the case of girl-mothers averaging around 15 years, the ratio was 143 boys and 100 girls. With mothers averaging 20 years there were 120 boys to 100 girls; at 25, there were 120 boys to 100 girls; but at 40 there were only 91 boys to 100 girls, and this ratio of boys decreased with the age of the mother.

Just because she liked to play on her pipe organ, Everett Emerson Wagner accused her of trying to "high brow" him, charged Mrs. Helen B. Wagner in a suit for divorce on file in the County Clerk's office.

"You are getting too uppity—you think more of that organ than you do of me," Wagner declared she said.

He pulled her out of bed by her left foot, she charged, and he blackened an eye for her to reduce her to what he considered a state of humility, Mrs. Wagner declared.

TWO DAM PLANS WILL BE RUSHED

Swamp and Big Dalton Next Flood Control Projects

Construction Will be Begun About First of Year

Two Reservoirs Are to Cost Total of $796,000

The next projects of Los Angeles county's $25,000,000 flood control program, which will be started with the construction of the Swamp and Big Dalton reservoirs, Flood Control Engineer Reagan announced yesterday.

Specifications will be prepared and bids advertised for on these two jobs before the holidays, and work will probably be started with the New Year, Reagan said. At that time four reservoirs will be under construction, as work has already been started on the Colma and Big Santa Anita dams.

The Swamp Reservoir is one of the smaller of the flood control works authorized by the voters in the bond election at the Presidential primaries last spring. Its appropriation for it is $241,000. It will impound 350 acre feet of water behind a dam 125 feet high and will control the waste water from an area draining into Swamp Canyon. The dam will be in the eastern part of the city of Monrovia above the mouth of the canyon.

BIG DALTON
The Big Dalton reservoir will cost $555,000 and will impound 1500 acre feet of water that would otherwise menace a wide extent of valuable land between Glendora and Dalton Park. It will conserve the drainage of a watershed of about five square miles. Because no favorable site is presented at the mouth of the canyon, the dam will have to be built some distance back in the valley, which somewhat reduces the drainage area as compared with what it might have been but for untoward geological conditions at the mouth. The dam will be of the multiple arch type, 140 feet high, and constructed of concrete.

The next job to be begun after these will be the Puddingstone Reservoir, which, when started, will be the largest of the enterprises under way until the great San Gabriel reservoir is begun. A concrete dam across Puddingstone Creek and two earthen dams across narrow valleys adjacent, will back up a sizable artificial lake with a capacity of 20,000 acre feet.

BIG TUJUNGA
The capacity of the San Gabriel project will exceed this, the next nearest in size being the Big Tujuanga reservoir, which will have a capacity of 14,000 acre feet. Next to this ranks the Poompa Reservoir, now under construction, with a capacity of 11,000 acre feet. The Puddingstone project, including a channel connecting with San Dimas, will have a capacity of such excess as the San Dimas reservoir is unable to accommodate, will cost $1,750,000. The main dam will be of concrete, 140 feet high.

Specifications for this job will be ready before Easter, Engineer Reagan said yesterday, and it is probable that engineering design of one or more of the smaller enterprises will have been completed by then. The Puddingstone project, thereafter the great flood control program will be under way in full with a half-dozen jobs under construction.

HUGE PROJECT
By this time next year it is expected that Reagan's office forces will have pretty well disposed of its preliminary work in connection with all the minor projects and will be ready to attack the problems of the big San Gabriel reservoir in full force. This huge dam and the accompanying construction work, will cost $25,000,000, about 70 per cent of the total bond issue approved last spring. It will be one of the largest flood control operations in the world, its impounding capacity of 240,000-acre feet outstripping anything in the way of flood control construction ever attempted before in this part of the country.

Gen. Gonthals, retained by the Board of Supervisors as consultant for the whole program of construction, will return to make a special study of the plan for the San Gabriel reservoir when they are completed.

SEARCH IS ASKED FOR CHILDREN AT STUDIOS

BOY AND GIRL OUT TO WIN FORTUNES IN FILM CAPTIVOL

Police yesterday were requested to make the rounds of the film studios for two young hopefuls, missing from their homes and believed to be on the quest for fame and fortune in the film capital.

Reginald Bertolo, 15-year-old San Francisco lad, is just crazy to get into the film. His mother, Mrs. M. Bertolo, writes from the Bay City to Chief Heath asking that a search be made for her son. "That is the one commanding thought in his life," the anxious mother explains. Reginald left his home at 2325 Sutter street, San Francisco, last September. He is five feet, eight inches in height and, according to his mother's description, possesses a "youthful face with a faint trace of blond beard."

Lila Murphy, 13-year-old schoolgirl, left her home from her mother in Allenton, Mich., last Wednesday, bound for Hollywood, the Sheriff of Allenton county writes to the local authorities. There was in no much of a hurry to reach her objective that she started out with no more wardrobe than a blue traveling suit and a sleeveless sweater. She has light bobbed hair and is five feet in height.

WOMAN IN AUTO CASE NOT POMONA STUDENT

An investigation by Pomona College authorities has disclosed that no Pomona College student was concerned in an automobile accident at Santa Ana the 18th inst., which led to the jailing of a Los Angeles patrolman on charges of failing to render aid to injured child. A woman in the party, who said she was a Pomona College student, was not at the institution, according to I. H. Batten, director of reginal service.

OWNER AND ENTRY AT BENCH SHOW VOLLMER CASE UP TOMORROW

French Bulldog Given Purple Ribbon

Mrs. William Wood With Marechal

MARECHAL of Luxembourg, a French bulldog, 2 years of age, stands an excellent chance of becoming a champion in his class, having in the third annual show been awarded a purple ribbon, by Judge William T. Brown, according to the dog's owners, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wood of Hollywood. The dog now has to his credit, according to Mr. Wood, nine of the necessary fifteen points and is up to entered at the San Diego dog show and at the A. B. and C. dog show.

The dog won a medal for the best French bulldog bred by an exhibitor and a silver trophy for the best dog of the opposite sex. The other silver trophy going to Mrs. Hilda S. Deane, a female French bulldog owned by Mrs. G. Higgins.

Marechal of Luxembourg was born at Hollywood two years ago, sired by Champion Petit Marechal of Luxembourg, the dam being Lady Virginia and was the first puppy born to her.

DEBTS FUND SECURED AT DEDICATION
Subscriptions at Service in New Methodist Church Exceed Needed Sum

An enthusiastic response to an appeal for funds with which to meet approximately $800 in debts remaining on the recently completed Euclid Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, resulted in subscriptions of more than double that amount at the dedication of the beautiful new place of worship yesterday afternoon. The subscriptions in excess of the needed amount will be placed in a forward fund.

More than a score of Los Angeles ministers of other branches of the sect and of other sects were present when Bishop Charles Wesley Burns of San Francisco delivered his dedicatory sermon. Five former pastors of the Euclid Heights Methodist Episcopal Church—Rev. C. W. Bunker, Rev. C. J. Miller, Rev. B. A. Bunker, Rev. Fred Ross and Rev. C. W. Cummings, participated in the service.

THUGS AND BURGLARS PLY TRADE
Lawless Bands Have Runy Week-End, as Indicated by Reports to Police

Highwaymen, thugs and housebreakers ply their trade vigorously Saturday night and Sunday morning, reports reaching police headquarters yesterday indicated. Two bandits, operating in a small touring car, drove up in front of 4415 Auto Livery, 517 West Eighth street, and at the point of guns, relieved the attendant of $200 in cash.

Joe Martinez, of 643 1/2 North Main street, was set upon by six unidentified Mexicans at Sixth street and Central avenue and relieved of his watch and $27 in money. Carlos Usta, schoolboy, of 3010 East Fifth street, accepted an invitation to join three strangers on an automobile ride. The party was augmented by three men in saffron uniforms. While driving along Alhambra, the boy's new-found friends stripped him of all of his clothing and put him out of the machine.

Nels Thompson, of 4012 Heliotrope street, Maywood, was relieved of his watch and $23 in cash by a lone highwayman who held him up at Seventy-sixth street and Central avenue. Burglars ransacked the C. & B. Cafe at 817 West Sixth street, but made away with only $4 in cash, according to T. Hendry, proprietor.

CHEST MEETINGS TODAY
Women workers in the Community Chest campaign will hold their two chest meetings today at Community Chest headquarters. Mrs. Harold Chisley will meet her major, captains and lieutenants at 10 a. m., and at 3:30 p. m. Mrs. M. J. Barkman will confer with her officers.

Dr. Barclay Acheson
denace, travel and study there. For several years prior to the World War he was a professor at the American College in Beirut, Syria. Dr. Acheson goes from here to Washington, D. C., and New York City to prepare for returning overseas on November 5.

VOLLMER CASE UP TOMORROW

Motion for Change of Venue Will be Heard

Mrs. Lex is Opposing Former Chief's Legal Stand

Her Attorneys Deny Rumors of Attempt to Settle

That she will resist the motion of August F. Vollmer, former Chief of Police here, for a change of venue of the $50,000 damage suit she brought against him was indicated yesterday in an affidavit filed in Superior court by Mrs. Charlotte M. Lex, who accused the former Chief with betrayal and breach of promise to marry.

Vollmer now has on file a motion for a change of the place of trial of the case from Los Angeles county to Alameda county. In his affidavit Vollmer asserted that he was a resident of the northern county and was living in Berkeley at the time Mrs. Lex instituted her action.

Mrs. Lex asserted in her affidavit that Vollmer had told her while he was Chief of Police in Los Angeles that he regarded this city as his home and that he would remain here as long as he served sufficient time on the Berkeley police force to be eligible for retirement on pension.

In addition to his motion for a change of venue, Vollmer has on file a demurrer to Mrs. Lex's complaint in which he asks that the complaint be thrown out by court on technical grounds. Arguments on both the motion and the demurrer are scheduled for tomorrow by Judge Frederick C. Valentine.

Mrs. Lex's attorneys have denied reports circulated at the courthouse last week that negotiations looking toward a settlement of the case out of court are under way.

MAN HUNTED AS SUSPECT IN STABBING
Victim Says He Wrestled Knife From Assailant in Assorted Attack

George Flores, of 2010 Sacramento street, was the victim of a knife attack last Saturday night as he was leaving after a visit to the home of A. Jeter at 944 East Forty-first street. Flores told police that he was attacked by a man who was armed with a large knife. Flores was wounded in the arm and the leg. The assailant was wrestled from the knife and fled.

LEVANT AID LEADER HERE
Dr. Barclay Acheson Comes to Urge Continued Help for Humanitarian Efforts in Near East

Dr. Barclay Acheson, associate general secretary of Near East Relief, reached Los Angeles from New York last night and is at the Clark Hotel. He comes direct from Greece, Syria, Palestine and the Russian Caucasus, where he has been acting for the international committee as co-ordinating director for the entire area served by the Near East Relief.

During a two-day visit Dr. Acheson will fill numerous speaking engagements. Last night he occupied the pulpit of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, and tonight he will be the principal speaker at a "Golden Rule" dinner sponsored by Pasadena civic leaders at the Maryland Hotel. Between addresses here Dr. Acheson will assist religious and welfare workers in perfecting plans for Southern California participation in the second American observance of International Golden Rule Sunday, December 1, a day of giving to Near East children.

The purpose of Dr. Acheson's present tour, the relief official states, is to tell people of the continued need at the Near East and of the fact that although Near East Relief is caring for approximately 70,000 children, still it has a responsibility toward 150,000 or more half-starved children who remain in pestilential refugee camps along the Eastern Mediterranean.

ROSCOE SIGN PERMITTED BY COUNCIL

Request Granted Despite Question Raised by Public Works Board

Poor Roscoe!

The Chamber of Commerce of this booming, bustling, busy community of the San Fernando Valley desired to hang an illuminated sign across San Fernando Road reading "Roscoe," so that he who rides may read that he is now passing through Roscoe.

The City Council said "O. K." to the request to hang the sign. The Board of Public Works said, "No," unless the Council adopted an ordinance making the sign legal.

The Council received the board's report and again said "Yes" to the request for the sign, and so notified the Roscoe Chamber of Commerce and also the Board of Public Works.

It's a bluff on our part," said Councilman Mallard. "We want Roscoe to have the sign, but we know that there is no law to permit it."

"Aw, who is going to kick about it?" said the rest of the Council and the sign request was granted by the Council over the head of the Board of Public Works.

Appreciation of the faithful and effective services of Dr. Herbert Booth Smith who, yesterday began the ninth year of his pastorate of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles, was manifested yesterday by the members of the church when Dr. Smith presented with a check which, a $1000, will be used for the purchase of a new automobile.

ENGLISH PAPERS
Referring to the newspapers of England, Mr. Fuller stated that the trend in British journalism today is away from the ponderous, involved style of news writing that formerly prevailed toward the terse, snappy method of the American papers. The Britons are also going in for illustrations on a scale exceeding even that of the journals on this side of the water.

SLANG BARRED
Speaking of the American papers, the British editor said that they are great news journals, but he complained that the headlines are often bewildering and also that the writers use slang, which is absolutely barred in the British papers.

Although there is conflict aplenty among the characters, even that surges mostly in the inner beings of the people concerned. As quiet and simple as its title, is the photograph of a young girl, which is showing this week at Miller's Theater. As much beauty as the title suggests is found in the photography and the rustic out-door settings.

Dr. Barclay Acheson Comes to Urge Continued Help for Humanitarian Efforts in Near East

Dr. Barclay Acheson, associate general secretary of Near East Relief, reached Los Angeles from New York last night and is at the Clark Hotel. He comes direct from Greece, Syria, Palestine and the Russian Caucasus, where he has been acting for the international committee as co-ordinating director for the entire area served by the Near East Relief.

During a two-day visit Dr. Acheson will fill numerous speaking engagements. Last night he occupied the pulpit of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, and tonight he will be the principal speaker at a "Golden Rule" dinner sponsored by Pasadena civic leaders at the Maryland Hotel. Between addresses here Dr. Acheson will assist religious and welfare workers in perfecting plans for Southern California participation in the second American observance of International Golden Rule Sunday, December 1, a day of giving to Near East children.

The purpose of Dr. Acheson's present tour, the relief official states, is to tell people of the continued need at the Near East and of the fact that although Near East Relief is caring for approximately 70,000 children, still it has a responsibility toward 150,000 or more half-starved children who remain in pestilential refugee camps along the Eastern Mediterranean.

BRITISH LABOR'S IDEAS MODIFIED

Publisher's Representative Here Tells of Change

Year's Rule Shows Fallacy of Utopian Program

Visitor Amazed by American Newspaper Headlines

A year on the job as rulers has caused a material modification of the radical ideas of the leaders of the British Labor party, according to A. R. Fuller of London, representative of Viscount Rothermere, who owns the Daily Mail, the Daily Mirror and a number of other newspapers formerly published by his brother, the late Lord Northcliffe.

Mr. Fuller, who is here on a vacation, stated that the extreme views of labor are no longer as extreme as they were, because actual experience in government has convinced the brains of the radical party that their glittering program of reform is impracticable.

"When the Labor government went into power the hopes of the Socialists and other extremists ran high," said Mr. Fuller. "The expected reforms were slow in showing up, however, in spite of the importance of Labor's ardent supporters, who hoped that a Utopia would be set up almost overnight."

LEADERS TRY
"The leaders, who naturally got all the official jobs, did in fact make an attempt to carry out some of the idealistic schemes for which their followers clamored. For instance they removed the duty on American automobiles and every man might own a car. But this closed down the English automobile factories, throwing thousands of men out of work and leaving them without the wherewithal to purchase the low-priced machines. That is an illustration of how the illusions of the Utopians were shattered. Now they are seeking their understanding of how the modification of radicalism in harmony with common sense."

ENGLISH PAPERS
Referring to the newspapers of England, Mr. Fuller stated that the trend in British journalism today is away from the ponderous, involved style of news writing that formerly prevailed toward the terse, snappy method of the American papers. The Britons are also going in for illustrations on a scale exceeding even that of the journals on this side of the water.

SLANG BARRED
Speaking of the American papers, the British editor said that they are great news journals, but he complained that the headlines are often bewildering and also that the writers use slang, which is absolutely barred in the British papers.
